Make a mark right from the start!

Caroline Linse and Elly Schottman

Enchanting young learners with a variety of fun, hands-on activities and games, this three-level pre-school course offers a completely child-centered approach to learning English.

Key benefits include:

- enriched communicative language practice through songs, chants, vocabulary games and guided dialogues
- a child-centered approach developing language alongside conceptual and physical skills development
- a clear five-lesson sequence and controlled language syllabus, giving young learners a predictable learning routine
- engaging cross-curricular activities to stimulate language use in other subject areas
